Total home comforts
 for total peace of mind.

Keeping customers comfortable since 1903.

- We're the country's #1 home heating oil provider, covering the East Coast from MA and RI, down to MD and VA.
- Through the Great Depression, two World Wars and various oil crises over the years, we've never run out of oil, which means you won't either.
- Our customer service professionals, drivers and technicians are all local. We live and work where you do, so we really understand and take care of your particular needs.
- From the coldest winter night to the hottest summer day, we're here for you whenever you need us, 24/7, all year.

Our years of home comfort service experience and large network of resources enable us to support all of your needs better than any other heating oil company.

That's the Petro difference.

We're your local, total home comfort provider.

- Manage your account, pay your bills and more online with MyPetro.

The Petro difference.

Taking care of you and your home comforts is what we do best. But we also enjoy taking care of others in our community, since we live and work there, too. That's why we sponsor and participate in a range of local community programs and charitable organizations, like cancer awareness events, food bank donations and much more.

Heating & Air Conditioning Services

“I called my current oil company to request a service call and was told they were too busy, so I'd have to wait until the morning. With small children and the temperature dropping outside, this was unacceptable. Petro immediately took my call, signed me up for service and had a repair man at my home in under an hour! It's refreshing to know that companies still value exceptional customer service and employ exceptional people.”

— DR. VICTOR ROSENBERG

You're always our #1 priority, and we have the resources to make all of your home comfort needs more comfortable.
